2020-2021 FEES STRUCTURE FOR CONTINUING STUDENTS

We thank all students, parents and guardians for your co-operation and support during the 2019-2020 academic year.

In this communication, we present to you the 2020-2021 Fee Structure. While changes have taken place in the wider economy with regard to inflation, the University has made a decision not to adjust tuition fees. Tuition charge per credit hour will thus remain as follows:

a) Undergraduate Programmes: The total tuition fees per semester assumes 15 credit hours for students on both campuses. A credit hour at Main Campus Athi River costs Kshs 5,650 while at Nairobi Campus it costs Kshs 6,410.

b) Nursing Programme: Tuition fees is fixed at Kshs 80,715 per semester.

c) Law Programme: Tuition fees assumes a full load of 18 credit hours per semester at Kshs 6,950 per credit hour.

d) Master's Programmes: At Nairobi Campus, tuition fees assume a full load of 12 credit hours per semester at Kshs 7,830 per credit hour.

e) PhD programmes: At Nairobi Campus, tuition fees assumes 9 credit hours per semester at Kshs 15,000 per credit hour.

f) Postgraduate Diploma Programmes: Tuition fees assumes 12 credit hours per semester at Kshs 4,000 per credit hour.

g) Diploma Programmes: Tuition fees for diploma programmes assumes a full load of 15 credit hours per semester. Diploma in Communication is charged at Kshs 5,100 per credit hour while other Diploma courses are charged at Kshs 3,000 per credit hour.

The Management has further made consideration to discount Tuition Fees by 15% for both continuing and new students for the August 2020 semester. I invite you to take advantage of the Tuition discount to make academic progress. Registration of courses begins on August 24, 2020.

PLEASE NOTE:

1) Payment Options:

- Fees payment in full in order to proceed with course selection.
- Payment in instalments; pay at least 50% of the semester fees to proceed with course selection. The remaining amount will be paid in 2 monthly instalments of 25% each. An instalment fee of Kshs 2,000 will be charged.

2) Medical Cover: The University has negotiated a Medical Cover chargeable at Kshs 17,500 per academic year. Students who opt for the medical cover will be required to make full payment for the cover prior to selection of courses.

We wish you all God's blessings.
In His Service.

Yours Sincerely,

Prof. Laban P. Ayiro, ss
Vice Chancellor
